

Primary Source Annotation 5: Anticolonial Speech

Due: Friday, November 6 at 11:59 PM

Value: 30 points

Format: 600-word rhetorical-source annotation

Purpose

Analyze how an anticolonial leader adapted universal claims to a specific political audience and historical constraint.

Your task

- Choose one: Gandhi's Quit India speech (1942), Ho Chi Minh's Declaration of Independence (1945), Kwame Nkrumah's independence speech (1957), or Patrice Lumumba's independence address (1960).
- Identify immediate audience, political risk, institutional setting, and the action requested or legitimized.
- Analyze two rhetorical moves such as historical analogy, international law, sacrifice, unity, or accusation.
- Compare the speech's definition of freedom with one earlier revolutionary source and identify a tension it leaves unresolved.

Submit

- 600-word annotation PDF with Chicago citation for both sources.

Grading criteria

| Criterion           | Pts | Full-credit evidence                                                 |
|---------------------|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Context             | 7   | Accurately situates creator, audience, place, and historical moment. |
| Close reading       | 9   | Analyzes two specific features of the source with careful evidence.  |
| Interpretation      | 8   | Makes a defensible claim and distinguishes inference from fact.      |
| Limits and citation | 6   | Names silences or limits and supplies a complete Chicago citation.   |
