

Final Digital Exhibit

Due: Friday, December 11 at 11:59 PM

Value: 150 points

Format: Six-item public digital exhibit

Purpose

Publish a historically responsible, accessible exhibit that guides a public audience through a focused interpretation using six primary-source items.

Your task

- Revise the title, question, and thesis so the exhibit makes one clear interpretive claim.
- Create a 650-750 word framing essay with historical context, stakes, and a transparent roadmap.
- Present six items in a purposeful sequence. Each requires a 100-140 word label that identifies, interprets, and connects it to the argument.
- Provide complete citations, provenance, rights information, alt text, and transcript or caption support where applicable.
- Write a 400-word curator reflection on selection, omission, ethics, audience, and the most important revision from feedback.
- Test every link and view the exhibit on both desktop and mobile before submission.

Submit

- Published ArcLight exhibit URL.
- Archival PDF export containing framing essay, six items and labels, bibliography, and reflection.
- Rights-and-accessibility checklist.

Important note

The exhibit is public-facing. Remove personal information, use only sources with appropriate reuse terms, and never upload an image simply because it appears in a web search.

Grading criteria

| Criterion                         | Pts | Full-credit evidence                                                          |
|-----------------------------------|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Historical argument               | 25  | Focused, significant claim develops across the full exhibit.                  |
| Evidence and interpretation       | 35  | Six items are accurately contextualized and analyzed, not used as decoration. |
| Curation and sequence             | 20  | Order, transitions, and omissions create a coherent visitor experience.       |
| Framing essay and labels          | 25  | Clear public writing balances context, specificity, and accessibility.        |
| Provenance, rights, accessibility | 20  | Citations, permissions, alt text, transcripts, and links are complete.        |
| Design and usability              | 10  | Readable hierarchy and functional desktop/mobile navigation.                  |
| Curator reflection                | 15  | Thoughtful account of ethics, revision, limitations, and audience.            |

Submission standards

Upload a readable PDF unless the handout specifies another format. Include your name, course code, and assignment title. Cite borrowed ideas and retain the editable source file. The learning portal timestamp is the official submission time.
